

Bruce Putsey and His Honor "Star Dawn"

Makes Brilliant Debut in Southland Dogdom Society

Putsey's Star Dawn, an 11-month old Weimaraner puppy, owned and bred by Mrs. Howard Putsey, 602 Calle de Arboles, made some impressive wins at the Glendale All-Breed Dog Show last Sunday.

Shown for the first time, he took first place in the bred by owner class, second in the novice class and second in the puppy 9 to 12 months class. Thirty-six Weimaraners were entered and the competition with older dogs was strong. Weimaraners, also known as the "Grey Ghosts," are comparatively new in this country. The first pair were imported late in the '30's, but pairs to be bred were not brought over until just shortly before World War II, according to Mrs. Putsey. At present, they are enjoying an ever-increasing popularity, a hardy, affectionate breed that seems to meet everyone's requirements in a dog.

Intelligent, too, Mrs. Putsey revealed that a female puppy from the same litter as Star Dawn won first place in the West Los Angeles Playground All-breed Obedience trials. This puppy is owned by Mr. and Mrs. David Turner of Manhattan Beach.

DISTRICT CHURCH MEETING APRIL 25

Mrs. Frank VomSteeg of 2825 Border Ave. will direct the project displays at the one-day spring fellowship of the Southern California District, United Foursquare Women, slated for 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, April 25, in the East Los Angeles Foursquare Church.

The local resident, project chairman for the district, says major highlight of the day's event will be an Easter bonnet parade of head apparel made exclusively of various kitchen items. Prize is to be awarded the three top unique entries. All bonnets, added Mrs. VomSteeg, will be donated following the fellowship to the UFW House in Santa Ana, celebrating its first anniversary this month. They will later be sent to the denomination's missionaries in other countries.

According to Mrs. VomSteeg, some 400 delegates from Southern California are expected to register at the fellowship.

Mrs. Paul Colclasure of 1511 W. 205th St., Centinela divisional representative for UFW, will head the delegation of women from Foursquare churches in this division.
